Allowing cellphone use on aircraft is not only a security issue (terror activities) but will cause a public riot because not everyone around the user will want to hear the conversation. Hence, the Flight Attendants now have to police the situation. Emergency evacuations can be disasterous with people on phones etc.....